MALAYSIANS CYCLE TO HOLY LAND

After a 105-day cycling journey from Kuala Lumpur, three Malaysians, husband and wife Ahmad Mohd Isa, 36, and Noradilah Mohd Sapie, 37, as well as an employee of the Forestry Research Institute (FRIM), Abdul Halim Talha, 57, arrived in Medina, Saudi Arabia on April 19 to perform the Hajj. The three of them arrived in the Holy Land after travelling 12,000 kilometres. Half of the journey had to use vehicles such as trains, airplanes, ferries and cars due to unavoidable factors. Apart from Malaysia, the countries they passed through were Thailand, then took a flight to India and continued cycling to Pakistan and Iran before boarding a ferry to the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and continuing cycling to Saudi Arabia. — Bernama photo
